THANK YOU!

About The Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education

Thank you for your interest in the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education's Willis R. Tribler Law Student Writing Competition. IICLE® is an independent not-for-profit 501(c)(3) corporation dedicated to the professional development of Illinois attorneys. We accomplish our mission through the publication of comprehensive practice handbooks designed by and for Illinois attorneys; the presentation of continuing legal education programs designed by and for Illinois attorneys; and the continued development and maintenance of additional legal resources designed to enhance Illinois law practice. As in each year since 1961, hundreds of volunteer practicing attorneys contribute their time and talent to developing IICLE® resources annually. The publishing division of IICLE® maintains a library of over 110 practice handbooks for Illinois attorneys covering multiple practice areas, and also regularly circulates a monthly e-newsletter filled with articles about the most recent developments in Illinois law.

About Willis R. Tribler

The Willis R. Tribler Law Student Writing Competition is conducted in memory of Mr. Willis R. Tribler. Mr. Tribler served the Institute in a variety of capacities over a number of years as a volunteer author, speaker, member and Chairman (1992-93) of the IICLE® Board of Directors. He also was the 1994 recipient of the Institute's prestigious Addis E. Hull Award. Mr. Tribler, who was a founding member and senior partner of the Chicago law firm of Tribler Orpett & Meyer, greatly valued excellence in legal writing. He mentored multiple attorneys over the years, having recruited a number of IICLE® volunteers. His abundant contributions to the Institute were invaluable, and he is fondly remembered by staff, volunteers, and former colleagues alike.

About The Competition

The Willis R. Tribler Law Student Writing Competition was created to showcase law students in Illinois (and surrounding states) with exceptional writing capabilities to the Institute's wide network of Illinois attorneys, and to introduce the Institute to law students in order to foster a relationship that we hope will continue throughout their careers. The 1st place winning entry will be published in a future edition of FLASHPOINTS, the Institute's monthly e-newsletter featuring updates within several practice areas. FLASHPOINTS boasts a subscriber base of over 12,000 Illinois attorneys, making this an opportunity for the winning entries to achieve a notable curriculum vitae enhancement due to the vast exposure and prestige it provides. Winners will also be recognized at an IICLE® event, to be announced.

The Guidelines for entries are as follows:

- All entries must be submitted on or before March 9, 2018. Submissions should be sent electronically to the attention of Doug Urbanski at durbanski@iicle.com and state "WRT Student Writing Competition Entry" in the subject line of the e-mail transmission.
- Articles must concern a recent decision and/or trend in a specific practice area, and include a "review" of the case, as well as a brief discussion on the impact of the ruling or trend on practicing attorneys in Illinois.
- Submissions are limited to a maximum word count of 2,500.
- Articles must be submitted in rich-text (Microsoft Word) format.
- Content must be the original work of the submitting author.
- Although IICLE® has a unique, in-house citation style, please follow Bluebook for all authority referenced in the article. Note that editorial staff will adjust citation style
- IICLE® is renowned for the practical nature of all of our professional publications. As such, the winning entries will be selected for their application to everyday practice.
